

MADE IN GERMANY

Arzberg | Gourmet

A celebration of cooking and dining

A passion for cooking and an understanding of real enjoyment go hand in hand – see, smell, taste and inspire the senses. Arzberg “Gourmet” has been designed with precisely this in mind: an integral part of tableware which surprises guests with impressive creations and treats them to a beautifully set table.

With “Gourmet”, Arzberg offers an inspirational platform to experiment, be creative and serve in style. After all, when it comes to porcelain, Arzberg is the expert. Whatever your design ambitions for your table, the new “Gourmet” range is the ideal partner for all creative chefs. And now, Gourmet is also available for the home.

Developed in recognition of the new trend for dining and hosting, the classic and elegant pieces of tableware are a simple and understated addition to any ambiance. And in the home, too, “Gourmet” opens up a whole new world of possibilities for dining in style. Whether you use the platters as dining plates or in the more conventional sense as serving dishes, your food creations will be an aesthetic feast too.

The large number of articles in the “Gourmet” range enables individual service ensembles to be created, tailor made for households with one, two or more people. “Gourmet” is ready for any challenge.